MPTF Planning for Spring 2026 Events

MPTF funding allocations for the 2025-26 year have already reached capacity, but funding may still be available for specific projects. Anyone who is planning performances for Black History Month, Women's History Month, Jazz History Month, or other specific demographic recognitions should reach out to MPTF administrator Christine Melson at vicepresident@afmlocal400.org to see if extra funding is available.

Starbucks Workers on Strike!

Starbucks workers across the nation are on strike! You can support them by signing a pledge not to buy Starbucks during the strike, finding a strike action near you, and follow for updates and progress at their website, nocontractnocoffee.org.

Email Communications Problem Solver

We have received multiple reports of folks having trouble with emails from Local 400 going to their spam folders. To solve this issue, we recommend

"whitelisting" the domain our emails come from, and have provided links below to instructions for completing this for a variety of email providers. For each of these options, the domain you will use is @afmlocal400.org.
